

An Intentionally Inclusive, Spiritually Progressive, Justice Seeking Community Serving South King County

We're on the Web
Saltwaterchurch.org

Unitarian Universalist congregations affirm and promote seven principles which we hold as strong values and moral guides.

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

We live out these principles within a “living tradition” of wisdom and spirituality, drawn from sources as diverse as science, poetry, scripture, and personal experience. These are the six sources we affirm and promote:

- Direct experience of that transcending mystery and wonder, affirmed in all cultures, which moves us to a renewal of the spirit and an openness to the forces which create and uphold life;
- Words and deeds of prophetic women and men which challenge us to confront powers and structures of evil with justice, compassion, and the transforming power of love;
- Wisdom from the world's religions which inspires us in our ethical and spiritual life;
- Jewish and Christian teachings which call us to respond to God's love by loving our neighbors as ourselves;
- Humanist teachings which counsel us to heed the guidance of reason and the results of science, and warn us against idolatries of the mind and spirit;
- Spiritual teachings of Earth-centered traditions which celebrate the sacred circle of life and instruct us to live in harmony with the rhythms of nature.

MY PLEDGE IS MY PRAYER

Now, Google is changing their filters. When I pledge here, I am voting for social and environmental justice, for acceptance and love of all people. I am sending my spiritual values out into the world on the river of my intention. In Judaism, there is a belief that the Messiah will not come until every single Jew is “all in,” praying for the Messiah in unison. I love that message. Jewish children grow up knowing that if they sit on the sidelines, they alone could be responsible for the prolonged agony of the world. True here, too. You matter, and our children matter. Your pledge is your declaration of being “all in” . That our values in action – together--can heal this broken world. Please pledge at a level that demonstrates your commitment to our shared faith. Please.

Directory Revision Coming in May
Challenge your memory: since 2015 have you changed names, address, phone, or E-mail address? Or could we possibly have the wrong information? Check your directory listing in the directory link at the bottom of the web page. Please send your correct information by April 16 to administrator@saltwaterchurch.org with “Directory Info” in the message title. Send information as you wish to be listed: the name or names, address, phone, & E-mail. Don't forget to include the children's names. Non-computer users can call the Church (206) 651-7358 , drop a note in the offering basket, send your info in a box of chocolates (Just Kidding!), but, please, no carrier pigeons.

A new Directory will be issued the first week of May 2017. Be helpful! Be included! Thank you!

IT'S SPRING!

Which means we shed our layers as the day warms up. We have a lovely assortment of coats, gloves, sweaters, etc. in the Welcoming Room and in the Lighthouse. Please pick up your (and your families') items as soon as possible. A donation of the unwanted items will be given to charity May 15.

Spring Retreat: Our Annual UU Gathering at Seabek

Friday, May 5 through Sunday, May 7
UU's Face to Face: A Journal for Your Journey

Our Annual Retreat at Seabek includes 6 meals – no cooking! – and programs and activities for all ages. Make this a traditional get away with UU's from this congregation and others in the Puget Sound region.

In times of extreme transition -- whether personal, congregational, or national -- we may feel shaken, disoriented, less than whole. It is more important than ever to cultivate a meaningful community and to know we are part of a wider UU web.

Rev. Amanda Aikman, UU minister and spiritual director, will accompany us as we regroup, restore, and refresh ourselves. You will be invited on a journey with fellow UU's, a journey of sharing, exploring deep spiritual issues, laughter, heartfelt connection. Please join us for this attractive possibility!

Lunch Bunch meets Wednesdays at noon in the Welcoming Room. Bring a sack lunch and join in for great conversations.

Potluck Sunday, April 9
Please bring a dish to share

Our Ministries of Support

Join Creative Hands, every 2nd and 4th Monday, at 7:00 pm in the Welcoming Room. Not just a group for knitters, some of us are also into beading or quilting or weaving, etc and others bring a paper art or even some simple mending. Currently our optional group project is making baby hats/small blankets for the drug addicted babies of PICC in Kent. Blankets can be made of felt, knitted, whatever, if you are interested. Join us in this or just come to catch up! OR Stop by to see the cute baby hats that some of us have made! Treats are provided. For questions call Betsy @ 253-946-6877

Please contact Debra Valpey (debravalpey@comcast.net or 206-953-5704) if you or someone in your family, or a close friend, would like to be featured on our Art Wall in the Welcoming Room. I am planning displays for the rest of the calendar year and I want to give "first dibs" to our own artists. And don't be bashful! There is an artist lurking within us all! I need to hear from you as soon as possible as empty walls are just too sad! Thank you!!!!

Please join the Adult RE team at noon on Sunday April 23, 2017 for a brown bag lunch discussion of the book or movie Hidden Figures, the story of NASA's human computers, many of whom were African American women, who were recruited while they were working as math teachers in "separate but equal" high schools in the south.

Stewardship and Saltwater...

Saltwater is in the midst of our annual pledging time. Thank you to everyone who has already turned in their 2017-2018 pledge. Though the goal is to get all pledges for the coming year turned in by April 2, we do not expect this new pledge amount to start until JUNE 2017. So keep thinking about what will feel good and right to start giving your church community in June and turn in that pledge. Feel free to change it, too, if you already turned it in and are moved to pledge more by recent testimonials! You can return you pledge card:

- At the Welcome Table in the Welcoming Room,
- By mail
- In person at the church office
- In the offertory basket on Sunday
- By email to administrator@saltwaterchurch.org

MY PLEDGE IS MY PRAYER

By: Saphronia Young

James used to say you can pray three ways: please, thank you, and "wow!" Today, you will hear my prayers. First, thank you. I came here for the first time on the Sunday after 9/11. My beloved sister, who was already fighting cancer, worked in tower 2. I came to Saltwater Church. I came to grieve, and I came to feel grateful that my sister survived. I was fearful, and confused. I found a wonderful religion. I found you. You comforted me. You talked of love, when so many in this country were spouting hatred. You surrounded me with laughter and chalice circle discussions and invited me into your homes. You even showed up when I invited you into mine. You held me during a divorce from a good guy everyone here liked. Later, I found my Tom here. THANK YOU!

You also cause me to catch my breath and say, "Wow." I close my eyes during the service when the music transports me to the eternal. This choir—and often we -sing so joyfully, so passionately, that I feel that connection to the divine. Your art, and writing, infuse me with the beauty and sweetness of the world. In the welcoming room, here in this space...WOW. This church invited a transgender child to speak here last week. Where else can I find that? WOW. This church gives my children the message that they are beautiful and perfect and holy just as they are. This community takes our message out there, marching and lobbying and saving the planet as a spiritual practice. WOW. Now, for "please." A few days ago, advertisers in Britain pulled out of Google when they discovered their ads were associated with violent content. They had not been able to persuade Google to change their filters. So, they pulled their money.

On May 28th, Sally Caldwell will be providing a Memorial Day service for the congregation. The theme will be people who have been important in shaping our lives. Sally would like four or five church members to tell a brief story about someone in the past (a parent, older friend, grandparent, teacher) who has significantly influenced him/her. If you have a homily or story that you would be willing to share, please contact Sally at 760-631-1740 or see her at church.
