

Since I Been Down

A documentary set in Tacoma highlighting teens and
Washington Criminal Justice

Movie & Discussion
Sunday February 2,
2025

12:30-3:30

In America's backyard, a community held captive by policies targeting gangs and drugs, sacrifices their youth for a false sense of justice, and safety. Forty years later, a true path to justice and healing is led from inside prison walls.

After the movie, discuss and learn what you can do (on the reverse and on Jan 2).

Change making starts with you.

Race and Restorative Justice by Fania E. Davis date TBA

Addressing the intersectionality of race and the US criminal justice system, social activist Fania E. Davis explores how restorative justice has the capacity to disrupt patterns of mass incarceration through effective, equitable, and transformative approaches. Eager to break the still-pervasive, centuries-long cycles of racial prejudice and trauma in America, Davis unites the racial justice and restorative justice movements, aspiring to increase awareness of deep-seated problems as well as positive action toward change.
